WELCOMERS' ROTA (Previously known as Door Stewards)

For JUNE-AUGUST

Due to holidays and other commitments we are short of volunteers for the next quarter. Please will you consider volunteering for this worthwhile and pleasant role. You will need to be available from 9.50am and then briefly after the service—no experience necessary—just a warm smile and friendly welcome.

Please contact Derek Smith if you can help:-

GENERAL CHURCH

MEETING

12th June

Please bring a packed lunch- drinks provided, and stay for the meeting after morning worship.

The nomination sheets for Church Stewards and representatives to Church Council are up on the notice board in the corridor.

Please remember that everyone is elected each year.

Please ensure the person you are nominating shows their agreement by initialling beside their name.

All nominations must be made seven days before the meeting and in the event of more nominations being made than places available a ballot will take place.

Hambleton

THANK YOU

Smartie Challenge---thank you to everyone who took part, despite a shortage of 20ps. We raised £872 for the Methodist Asylum Project in Middlesbrough. I think this is the most a smartie challenge has raised-well done us! Michael Webster

Church Flowers—thank you to all those who have donated flowers for Church since the start of the year. There are a few spaces left in 2022:- 17th July, 4th September, 16th October and 6th November. If anyone is able to fill these dates it would be gratefully appreciated.

Urgent-Help Wanted

We urgently need someone to take over running the Church website from mid-June when Peter (and Lynn!) Wilkinson move across the Pennines. Speak to Peter for more information or contact Rev Arthur if you are able to help.

The Living Rooms has had a temporary co-ordinator since opening in 2019. This appointment ends on 30th June and 2 part time appointments are planned. Full details on the notice board for anyone who is interested.
